If at the time of passage of this Ordinance, or annexation to the city, a legally created lot or the aggregate of contiguous lots or land parcels held in a single ownership, has an area or dimension less than required for the zoning district in which the property is located, the lot or aggregate holdings may be occupied by any permitted use in the district subject to compliance with all other requirements of the district, provided however, that the use of a lot in an R-7.5, R-5.0 or R-O District which has an area deficiency shall be limited to a single-family dwelling.

- B. Residential use in Commercial or industrial Zoning Districts. Any structure in a "C" or "I" District designed and used for residential purposes shall comply with the requirements of the R-O District. 9. Pending Building Permits. Nothing herein shall require any change in the location, site plans, building plans, construction, size, or designated use of any development, building, structure or part thereof, for which the required official approval has been granted prior to the adoption of this Ordinance, or which was lawfully permitted within an area prior to annexation thereof to the City of Tillamook City.
